

ADJECTIVES

I Circle the adjectives and write A for Attributive Adjective and P for Predicative adjectives.

1. John's fingers turned blue in the cold weather.
2. The vegetable lasagna smells delicious.
3. My new sweater turned pink after the first wash.
4. The bear is asleep in the cave.
5. That big house we wanted to buy is overpriced.
6. The little puppies were playful today.

II Use the following adjectives both as attributive and predicative

1. Belgian
2. Black
3. Beautiful

III. Write the positive comparative and superlative degrees of the adjective given in brackets to fill in the blanks

1. Getting a role was a day for me, getting the lead role was but getting a standing ovation was the moment of my life. (happy)
2. people live in New York but even people live in Shanghai and the city with the People is Mumbai (many)
3. The roller coaster ride is But the tower of snakes isand the is the Haunted House. (frightening)

IV Identify the mistakes in these sentences and rewrite them using the correct form of the adjectives

1. Virtue is more dearer to me than wealth
2. Raj is the most luckiest person
3. Micheal Jackson is a best pop singer
4. Hari is the most perfect barber in town.
5. Which is easier— Greek, Spanish or German?
6. Gagan can rap as faster as Kyle